HOW DO THEY DO THEIR JOB?

Or a More Subtle Approach?

However, could there be Times when your Police or Security have to take Less Than Subtle Actions?

RELATIONSHIPS

Establishing, Building, Fostering, and Developing Relationships between your Police or Campus Security Department and the Communities They Serve

We Want this:

Not this:

It is Easy to Fall or Lapse into the Latter and Hard to Overcome Barriers to Achieve the Former

Established Relationships Help Mitigate High-Profile, Controversial Actions by your Police or Security Department when They Happen

RELATIONSHIPS

Campus Police or Security are, and Should be Viewed as Another Important Department of the Institution, not a Necessary Evil or Occupation Force

Relationships are Key! Building Trust and Respect Leads to Collaboration and Cooperation Leading to Greater Safety and Security

Does your Faculty, Staff, and Administration Trust the Police or Security Department? Is there Open Communication? Collaboration on Issues or Problems?

Three parallel white lines of varying lengths are positioned on the right side of the slide, slanted diagonally upwards from left to right.
