It's Tee Time!

The 2010 Spring ACBO Conference Golf Tournament is scheduled for Sunday, May 16, 2010 at Teal Bend Golf Club in Sacramento, CA. Join us! We plan for yet another outstanding tournament. Whether you've participated before or this is your first experience, you will not be disappointed.

Teal Bend Golf Club features an 18 hole championship design from Sacramento native architect Brad Bell. Measuring over 7,000 yards from the "tips", Teal Bend's four sets of tees make it playable for golfers of all abilities. Its unique design separates each fairway allowing the golfer to enjoy time with friends while feeling like they are alone in nature. Since opening to the public in 1997, Teal Bend Golf Club has become a sought after destination for Sacramento golfers.

Situated adjacent to the Sacramento River and International Airport, Teal Bend Golf Club boasts 250 acres of natural wetlands, lush fairways, and undulating greens. The average round of golf takes 4 1/2 hours. Additional information on the course can be found at http://www.clubcorp.com/club/scripts/section/section.asp?NS=PCH&MFCODE=TEBGC.

The tournament will begin at 1:00 p.m. and will be preceded by a boxed lunch. The day will conclude with dinner and awards. The cost this year is just $30.00 for ACBO members and $90.00 for vendors and includes lunch, dinner, awards, green fees and carts. The company and good times you will have are free! The scramble format will make it fun for players of all levels.
